Democrats Purpose Making Investigation into Several Things Before They Get Through-Senate Confirms Nominations.

Washington, May 10. - The house passed a resolution authorizing an inquiry into the sugar industry with ref erence to the activities of the so-called "sugar trust."

A resolution was also passed creating a special committee to make an investigation of the present administration of the postoffice department In line with the purpose of the house Democrats to make inquiry in the vari ous departments a resolution was adopted providing for the appointment of clerks to the committees authorized under the rules to scrutinize depart mental expenditures. A measure was also passed carrying out the terms of the Democratic cancus's resolution which provides that one-third of the positions in the house should be abol-

The event in the senate was the speech of Senator Stone of Missouri demanding that the president should invade Mexico, if necessary, with the Wife Writes that He Was Emtroops to protect American life and property. Senator Bacon, Democrat and Senator Works, insurgent Republican, commended President Taft's course of non-interference, and deplored Senator Stone's attitude. Both declared that an armed invasion would mean war and Senator Works said it would mean "many years of war."

The senate in executive session confirmed a number of nominations, among them the following:

RUSHES OUT REINFORCEMENTS

All Available Troops in Northern Department to Proceed to Attack Madero's Forces-Further War Rumors.

Mexico City, May 10,—It was learned ere on reliable authority that the Mexican government has given up all hope of peace and will from now on prosecute the war vigorously.

The government believes that Navarro is able to withstand the rebels at Juarez, despite-advices received at Mexico City to the effect that the town was practically in the hands of the rebels. Reinforcements are being rushed to the aid of Rabago, who some time ago was ordered to the north All available troops in the northern section have received orders from the war department to proceed to attack Madero's forces. If they are unable to arrive in time to save Juarez it is believed that the government will con centrate the northern army in an atempt to retake the city.

A story was circulated that Figuer ros, the leader of the rebels in the states of Guerrero and Morelos, is contemplating an attack upon Cuernauaca and immediately afterwards intends to start toward Mexico City with inten to capture it. The government denies the story and says that peace arrange ments have practically been concluded with the rebels in Guerrero.

A commission from the national chamber of commerce visited the minister of war and asked to be supplied with guns and ammunition for protec tion in case the city were attacked and mobs attempted to sack houses and to supply the arms asked for.

LOCAL COURT PUTS A

BAN ON SHOOTING HABIT

Charles James (colored) who was rrested Tuesday afternoon on a charge of carrying concealed weapons, was arraigned this morning before Justice Stadtmiller who fined him $5 and the costs, $3.90. For the past few nights James is alleged to have been shooting and making threats and disturbances about the residences in the south end of town.

For some time past complaints have been made against young colored men who are not only carrying weapons but using them quite freely on the slightest provocation and it is the determination of the officers that such practice shall be stopped before any serious results are the outcome. The next offenders will be dealt with more severely.

That the Michigan potato growers do not obtain the yield they should can be seen from the fact that the average yield for Michigan in the past ten years has been 85 bushels per acre, while in Maine. where climate is similar and soil is in no way superior, the average yield is 225 bushels per acre and in one county in which a very large part of the crop is produced the average yield is 275 bushels.

In Maine the farmers avoid planting potatoes twice in suecession in the same ground, but grow clover, oats and potatoes in rotation. In Michigan, especially in the northern part, where conditions are hardly right to use commercial fertilizers as extensively as they are used in Maine, farmers should do all they can to keep up fertility by the use of clover and stable

FOR THE CORN CROP.

By J. A. JEFFERY,

SOIL PHYSICIST OF THE MICHIGAN AGRICULTUR-AL COLLEGE

THE ideal soil for corn in Michigan is an open loam. As a matter of fact corn is grown success fully in soils ranging from a sandy dark loam is more satisfactory than a light-colored loam. The darkness in color indicates the presence of organic matter, and the organic matter is helpful in two ways: First, it in PARIS-J. P. Morgan has presented creases the soil's capacity for capil lary water, and, second, it improves

Corn should be grown in rotation practice without a reduction in yield. tion and natural drainage are greatly improved. The corn should follow the lover. No other crop seems to be able to take so complete advantage of crop as the corn. An ideal preparation of the soil for corn is as follows:

the benefits derived from the clover

The clover should not be pastured too close during the fall previous to the planting of the corn.

The plowing should be done very late in the fall or very early in the spring. If the plowing be done in the fall the fie'd should be top-dressed with barnyard manure during the win ter or early spring.

If the plowing be done in the earl spring, the plow should be followed by the roller and the harrow, after which the top dressing should be applied at the same rate as if the plow-Keefe and Clark; Tyler, Brown and ing had been done in the fall. From time to time, until the time of plowing, the harrow should be used to prevent any surface packing of the soil.

The object of applying the manure as a top dressing is three fold: First, when applied as top dressing it lies where the transformations take place more readily by which the fertilizing materials are rendered most available Second, as a to dressing worked in, it forms a mulch which becomes effective in conserving the soil moisture Warhop and Sweeney; Works and from losses by evaporation. Third, it darkens the soil sufficiently to increase its capacity materially to absorb the sun's rays and so improve the temperature.

The frequent harrowing is helpful, Reduced Fares for the Round Trip moting the ventilation of the soil, versa. third, in incorporating the manure more efficiently and, fourth, each harrowing results in the destruction of a greater or smaller crop of weeds. And all these four together result in the more complete preparing and storing of available plant food for the young At Louisville - Louisville, 12; To corn plants when they are ready for such supply. Moreover, the destruc tion of such crops of young weeds re duces the number of weeds so largely ater becomes an easy one.

The practice followen by so many farmers of not plowing the clover sol for corn until within a few days of time of planting is seriously objection. able from several standpoints.

It will be argued that it is impossible to do the plowing at the time indicated, and that there is not time to do all the work suggested under the "ideal" method. This MAY be true in some cases, but this makes the ideal method none the less ideal.

Many farmers succeed in growing excellent crops of corn by the old method. It does not follow that they would not grow better crops if they followed the method here described.

THE HIGH GOST OF LIVING REDUCED

Much has been said about the high cost of living, its causes, and the possibilities of its reduction. But little has been said about the most costly leak: the false economy existing today in nearly every household.

Much foodstuffs are bought with but one point in view: "How cheap can I get it?" without a thought of quality or "after cost." One of the most serious is baking powder.

By the use of perfect b aking powder the housewife can derive as much economy as from any other article used in baking and cooking. In selecting the baking powder, therefore, care should be exercised to purchase one that retains its original strength and always remains the same, thus making .the .food sweet and wholesome and producing sufficient leavening gas to make the baking light.

Very little of this leavening gas is produced by the cheap baking powders, making it necessary to use double the quantity ordinarily required to secure good results.

You cannot experiment every time you make a cake or biscuits, or test the strength of your baking powder to find out how much of it you should use; yet with most baking powders you should do this for they are put together so carelessly they are never uniform, the quality and strength varying with each can

Calumet Baking Powder is made of chemically pure ingredients of tested strength. Experienced chemists put it up. The proportions of the different materials remain always the same. Sealed in air-tight cans, Calumet Baking Powder does not alter in strength and is not affected by atmospheric changes

In using Calumet you are bound to have uniform bread, cake or biscuits, as Calumet does not contain any cheap, useless or adulterating ingredients so commonly used to increase the weight. Further it produces pure, wholesome food, and is a baking powder of rare merit; therefore is recommended by leading physicians and chemists. It complies with pure food laws, STATE and NA-TIONAL. The goods are mo derate in price, and any lady purchasing Calumet from her grocer, if not satisfied with it, can return it and have her money refunded.

The manufacturers of Calumet Baking Powder has just prepared a new edition of their handsome Cook Book, and will gladly mail it FREE to anyone who sends for it. In writing address the Calumet Baking Powder Co., Chicago, and ask for Cook

It may be taken for granted that here is no family of any size that goes very long without needing a laxtive. If you don't know of a good axative, or the laxative you are using s losing its effect, we want to call your attention to Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which thousands of families are using successfully.

we have scores of letters from mothers, and scores from prominent mensaying they are using it personally and riving it to their families, men like Mr. C. K. Smith of the Traffic Clearing House, Pine Bluff, Ark., and Mr. George B. Turner, a lawyer of Harlan, Ky. The thousands of mothers who use it themselves and give it to their children would take too much space to mention. oulpit at the Friends' church Sunday selves and give it to their children would take too much space to mention. The reason they prefer Syrup Pepsin is that it is a mild, gentle laxative-tonic that does not gripe—effective and yet so mild that babies can take it. Its tonic ingredients invigorate the body and strengthen the stomach and bow-al muscles so that they again do their work naturally. If you have been a victim of salts, pills and strong cathartics you will discard them when you once use Syrup Pepsin.

Bridal Etiquette. Smart brides who have stepped off the carpet in recent weeks have set the pace for a number of bridesmaids, from four to eight being chosen, the number of ushers often corresponding. With these, two little children may act as pages or flower girls, the little maids carrying baskets of flowers, which they strew before the bride on her way up

The bride to be selects her bridesmaids from her intimate friends and relatives, but if the bridegroom has sisters it is etiquette to include one or more of these. The maid of honor is the sister of the bride or her dearest friend, comes when it suits her to do friend, and of course the bridegroom's best man is either his brother or his

The ushers are chosen from the close friends of the bridal pair, and the invitations to these are given by note or verbally without the least formality. But this little visit is made rather secretly, as the whole object of the groom's last function to his friends is to honor them alone.

Where a Man Rises. When a woman comes into a room in which there are only a few people, say about half a dozen, all the men should rise at once and remain standing until she is seated. In a crowded room, at a tea or party, this, of course, is not necessary.

If a man is already seated at the table he should rise when women come to the table. Men who are very careful of their manners do this even at hotels and restaurants if strangers are put at their table, but it is unusual. Heidelberg students in Europe keep up this courteous practice, and it is said that Harvard students in this country also do so.

If a woman in passing down the aisle of a theater or train pauses to speak to friends any men in the party should rise while she is speaking, Saturday, May 13th. Weinmann and if on a train one of them should Matthews Co. offer his seat.
